Synopsis:

This classic story tells of Belle, a young woman in a provincial town, and the Beast, who is really a young prince trapped under the spell of an enchantress. If the Beast can learn to love and be loved, the curse will end and he will be transformed into his former self. But time is running out. If the Beast does not learn his lesson soon, he and his household will be doomed for all eternity.

Production Staff:

Kyle Myrick - Director

Joe Woolf - Music Director

Courtney Pearce - Choreographer

Glenn Berg - Rehearsal Accompanist

Michael Pollard - Conductor

Makayla Klumpp - Parent Committee Head

Rebecca Wright - Fight Choreographer

Director's Note:

This show is quite literally a Beast. Every time that I have done this show, I begin to question why I chose to do it. But, in the end, it is always worth it.

To see what these incredible kids can do is always a pleasure! This show is about having love in your heart—whatever that means to you. It's an often-heard phrase, “don't judge a book by its cover,” and we understand that superficially as a society, but most of us do anyway. It's our nature. But, how incredible would it be if more of us actually had love and acceptance in our hearts and not just in our minds?

You know the people who practice this idea and you love to be around them and feel safe around them. Be that person for others. Don't be a Beast and have to learn the “hard” way. Be a Belle and share the acceptance and love always even when it's hard.

Please enjoy the insane amount of hard work by this incredible cast, crew and orchestra. They have worked tirelessly to create a magical performance for you. I believe they have accomplished this and more.

Kyle Myrick, Director
